

SEABORNE AIRLINES TO BE FEATURED IN UPCOMING EPISODE OF ABC'S HIT ROMANCE REALITY SERIES *THE BACHELOR

SEABORNE AIRLINES will be accommodating the Bachelor and his ladies arrival to St. Croix, USVI on an upcoming episode of The Bachelor. The episode will feature a special seaplane tour and arrival with the newest Bachelor, Sean Lowe. The episode is scheduled to air Monday, February 11, 2013, on ABC.

This season on The Bachelor, Sean, 29, the successful Dallas businessman and entrepreneur who charmed fans while wooing Bachelorette Emily Maynard, meets 26 potential soul mates and gets another shot at love as the Bachelor. Sean was blindsided in the Caribbean island of Curaçao when Emily rejected him, and viewers saw the devastated Sean wrestling to make sense of her decision. Thankfully, Sean did not give up on his dream of love and he now knows with certainty that the time is right for him to risk it all again to try to find the right woman. The Bachelor airs Mondays (8:00–10:01 p.m., ET/PT), on ABC.

INFO ON SEABORNE AIRLINES

Seaborne Airlines—built their business from a romantic past of the Antilles Airboats that was established by Brigadier General and Pan American World Airways Captain Charlie Blaire and his wife Maureen O'Hara in the 1960's.

Seaborne began their first scheduled Seaplane flights in 1992 and fly airport and seaplane routes today. They have 337 weekly departures to San Juan, St. Thomas, St. Croix, Tortola and Virgin Gorda. Operating for 19 years in the Caribbean, Seaborne has carried more than 2 million customers. From traditional flights to chartered romantic weddings or sunset island hops all aircraft operate with two pilots and two engines. Seaborne operates under FAR 121, the strictest code of the Federal Regulations governing air travel and the same one that covers all US major airlines.

The 17th season of The Bachelor, from Warner Horizon Television, airs Mondays 8/7c on ABC. For more information on The Bachelor, visit <http://abc.go.com/shows/the-bachelor>. To learn more about SEABORNE AIRLINES go to www.seaborneairlines.com.
